

Beef Loin New York Boneless Rib

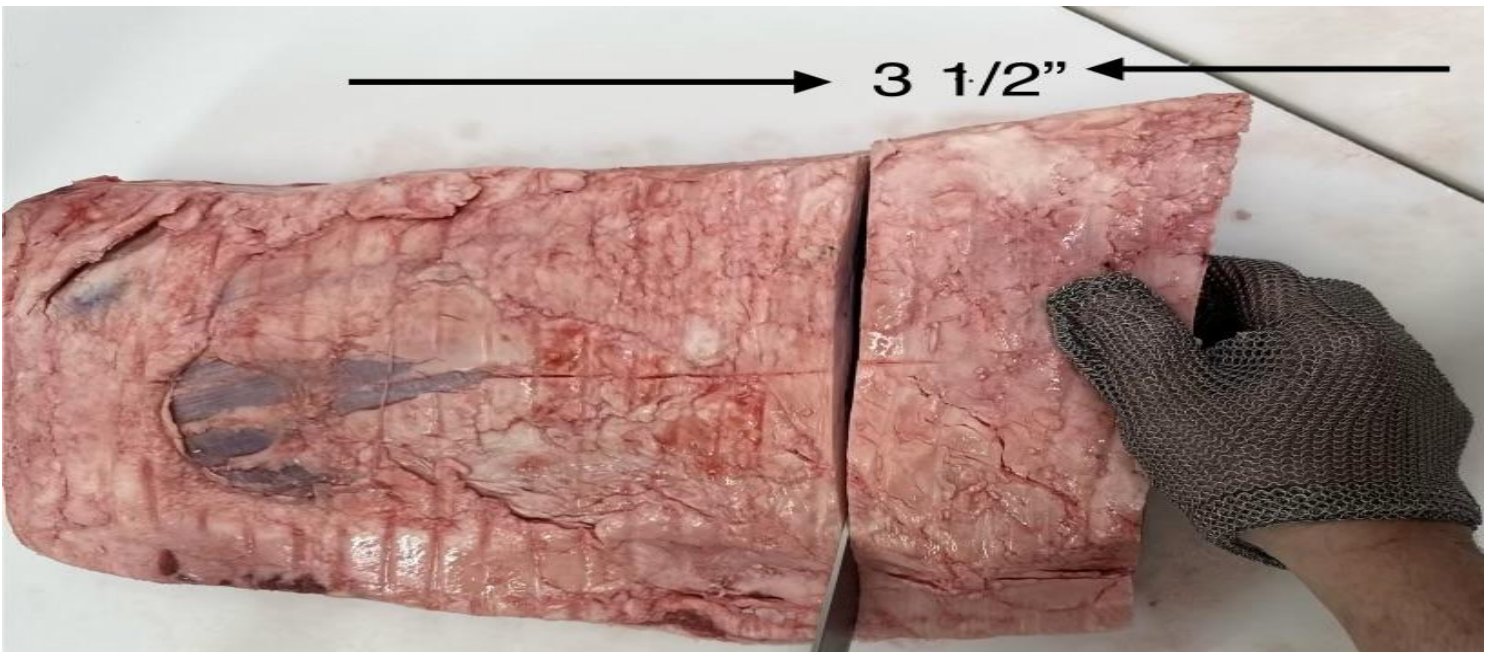

Note: Country style can be produced from the nerve end of BOTH Choice and Prime Striploins.

1. Tenderize whole strip loin
2. Face cut loin ½" inch from vendor break
3. Remove 3 ½ inches from sirloin (nerve) end
4. Trim and remove the backstrap (latissimus dorsi) 100%.
5. Remove any remaining bone chips, bone felt, or connective tissue.
6. Trim away all visible fat without going into red meat. Trim down to blue membrane.
7. Cut vein end into 1.5 inch steaks
8. Cut steaks in half down the middle
9. Flip steaks to show cut side
10. Package cut steaks in a 9L tray
11. Wrap and label with USDA choice sticker.

- 1. Face cut Sirloin end of loin $\frac{1}{2}$ inch left of the vendor's break .
Make point to point cut. A-B

- 2. Remove 3 $\frac{1}{2}$ " from the sirloin (nerve) end of the loin

3. Trim and remove the backstrap (latissimus dorsi) 100%.

4. Remove any remaining bone chips, bone felt, or connective tissue.

5. Trim away all visible fat without going into red meat. Trim down to blue membrane.

6. Cut sirloin (nerve) end into 1.5 inch steaks

7. Cut steaks in half down the middle

8 . Flip steaks over showing cut side

9. Package in a 9L tray as shown

10. Wrap and Label with a USDA Choice sticker.

